

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

SPOOKS, WITCHES AND GOBLINS... Next Thursday evening, Oct. 31, children and parents of the Arlington School will join in the fun at the school's annual carnival which is slated from 5 to 9 p.m. The children's costume parade will be held at 6 p.m. A hot dog supper will follow and there will be all kinds of amusement. In eager anticipation of the big event are, back row, from left, Mrs. Lloyd Van de Vort, Mrs. Ben B. Anderson, Johnny Prince and Sharon Webster. In the front row are Danny Prince, Steven Cyr, and Ellen Webster.

Evelyn Carr

Evelyn Carr Elementary PTA board meeting was held on Monday, Oct. 21, at the home of Mrs. John Maxwell. Meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Roland Stamm. The president introduced two board members to be ratified by the board—Mrs. Ben Pesta, magazines and emblems chairman, and Mrs. Paul Schade, parliamentarian. Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Perry Baker. Mrs. Jean Vance read the treasurer's report. Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Ralph Gastelum read a letter from the Casimir School inviting Evelyn Carr School to attend a series of films they are presenting concerning children.

Donald Credell, vice principal, announced that Miss Trudy Burbage, curriculum consultant of the Torrance Unified School District, would speak at the next association meeting on the "Reporting System." Mrs. Stamm gave a report on the progress of the Country Fair, outlining the location of the various booths. Mrs. Merle Love gave her membership report, announcing Miss Tuccinardi's room and Mr. Jackson's room as winners. Mrs. Albert Pesola said that Evelyn Carr now has 283 room mothers, reported on the council meeting of Mothersingers. There will be a Christmas program which will include the children on Dec. 8 at Torrance High School, 2 p.m. Evelyn Carr will present its Christmas program Dec. 17 at the school cafeteria. Richard Welte, principal, announced the parent education program to be held at the school Wednesday, Nov. 6, from 1:10 to 2:10 p.m. The topic will be "Discipline in the Classroom." Mrs. Stamm appointed a committee consisting of Mrs. Hernan Cortez, Mrs. Edward Roberts, Mrs. Paul Schade and Mrs. Merle Love to plan the coming Christmas board luncheon. Mrs. Schade offered her home for the party. Mrs. J. H. Cortez made a plea for more help with the school library.

G-W Council

Gardena Milk Bowl Game has been changed from 8:00 Friday evening, Oct. 18, to Friday afternoon, Oct. 18, at 3:00 p.m. The game will still be held at Gardena High School. Tickets are one dollar for adults and fifty cents for children. Freeman High will play Gardena.

Benefits of this event will be shared by the PTA's and the high school student body. Seventy-five per cent will go to the PTA's health and welfare funds and twenty-five per cent to purchase of athletic gear in the high school.

Tickets are on sale by Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA groups.

Mrs. C. N. Peterson, president of Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA conducted her presidents meeting recently at the home of Mrs. James Ellis, president of 186th St. School and was assisted by Mrs. Harold Sullivan, president of Catskill.

Meetings at Tenth District Health Center are: Home Service workshop, Nov. 8 at 9:30 a.m.; Founders Day chairman workshop, Oct. 29, at 9:30 a.m. There will also be a workshop for health chairman, Oct. 18, at 1200 S. Vermont at 10:00 a.m.

Kick off for the Community Chest Drive is Nov. 4. Next presidents meeting is Nov. 4 at the home of Mrs. A. J. Blake, president of 165th St. School PTA.

Unit presidents attending were: Amestoy Ave.; Carson St.; Catskill Ave.; Chapman Ave.; Del Amo; Denker Ave.; Dolores; Dominguez; Fries Ave.; Gardena Elementary; Gulf Ave.; Hawaiian Ave.; 186th St.; 156th St.; 135th St.; Towne Ave.; 232nd Pl.; Wilmington Park.

The do's and don'ts of publicity and record book were stressed recently at Gardena Community Center by Mrs. Richard Crowell and Mrs. John Raske, press and record book chairman of Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA. The annual workshop was held with twenty-nine chairman of local schools attending. Assisting Mrs. Rashke was Mrs. Margaret Stewart, former council record book chairman.

Sepulveda

Following a brief business meeting, the Sepulveda PTA was entertained with the following two one-act comedy skits presented by the Vagabond Players of South Bay, "I'm a Hurrying" and "Pore ole Jim."

The cast, under the direction of Andy Lamb, included the following: Jack Taylor, Wanda Laurence and Ronald Mariott. A hill-billy dinner was served to the PTA group following the plays. Amusing table decorations, in keeping with the "hillbilly" theme of the evening, complimented the food.

Also included* in the PTA program was a speech given by Miss Flora Watson, representing the Community Chest of Torrance.

Fathers of Sepulveda School children responded with an overwhelming enthusiasm to the PTA membership drive, by bringing in a 90% average of the fathers who joined during the recent drive.

Soaring over their 100% goal, Mrs. Ben Holden, president, announced that the Sepulveda PTA which included a 100% enrollment of their teaching staff, was the first school in this area to report their membership drive success to the Torrance Council PTA membership chairman, Mrs. Seth Warden.

Awards were presented to the following rooms for reaching their 100% quota first: Kindergarten-Room 2 — Miss Marion Prichard; and Room 14 — 8th grade, Wilbur Hawkins.

Newton

"What's new in Torrance Schools" was the subject of a discussion by Dr. F. Cyphert, at the first regular Newton School PTA meeting on Oct. 17. Dr. Cyphert, who is Educational Consultant, Torrance Unified School District, opened his comments with a background discussion of some of the facts of the school administration, future building plans to accommodate school growth, and current plans for opening the South High School. South High is expected to be in operation by January 1958. At the present time, access over Pacific Coast Hwy. by a pedestrian overpass is being considered.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Henry Graef, president. A subscription drive for the California PTA magazine and the National PTA magazine was announced by Mrs. Robert Wright. Mrs. Otto Willett highlighted the purpose of the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee.

Details of the PTA Carnival to be held Oct. 26 were covered by ways and means chairman, Mrs. F. A. Geisel. Games and booths are planned which will appeal to all school age groups including some to challenge the skills of the 7th and 8th graders. Pre-carnival ticket sales will be held at reduced prices.

Mrs. B. C. Robbins, first vice president, announced next month's program to be a discussion of the new "State Arithmetic Series" led by Webster Smith, Newton School principal.

Jobs See Popular Film

On Saturday, Oct. 12, 110 Jobs and friends of Torrance Bethel 50 attended the showing of "Seven Wonders of the World" at the Warner's Theatre in Hollywood. The mothers of the girls taking cars were Mrs. Crabtree, Howard, McDonald, Moore, Blount, Woodman, Mascola, Hirtle, Jackson, Stamps, Peterson, Thayne, Davis, Florence Smith, and Hattie Smith.

An initiation was held on Tuesday, Oct. 15. Girls joining the Bethel are Misses Jane Tussing, Beatrice Keller, Pat Holland, Mary Terrill, Pat Clark, Judy Peck, Barbara Castle, Susan Smart, and Sandra Stonaker. After the meeting a reception was held to greet the new girls.

Square Dances

Square Dance classes are being held each Tuesday evening from 8:30 to 11 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 214 Ave. I, Redondo Beach. Clarence Barrow is the caller. Anyone interested may call Mr. Barrow.

Junior Confab Is Scheduled For Monday

Monday, Oct. 28, has been selected as the second Marina District Conference for the club year. The meeting will be called to order at 8:00 p.m. by Mrs. B. D. Reece, president, at the El Segundo Community Methodist Church, 540 Main St.

Of particular interest will be the announcement by Mrs. Robert Thomson, philanthropy chairman, concerning the results of the tabulated votes of all nine clubs for the district philanthropy. This project will have been selected from philanthropies which are of direct interest and concern to the area.

Special guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. Peter Guzvich, Director of the San Pedro Mental Health Clinic, whose topic will be "Planning For Community Mental Health." The San Pedro Mental Health Clinic was chosen last year as the Marina District philanthropy.

Mrs. Walter Talley, president of Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council, announced that a magazine workshop was held on Oct. 16 in the home of Mrs. Howard Fuels, council magazine chairman, with Mrs. Leo A. Cohen, 10th District magazine chairman, in charge.

Mmes. William Shfer and Harry Nishimoto helped serve representatives from the following schools: Bandini, Barton Hill, Crestwood, Fifteenth St., Halldale, Leland St., Lomita, Point Fermin, 25th Pl., 223rd St. and White Pt.

Local schools were also well represented at the 10th District meeting held Oct. 10 at Palms Junior High.

CYF STAGES TWO PARTIES

CYF of the First Christian Church entertained at an old fashioned box social recently at the church. Prizes for the prettiest and most original boxes went to Carolyn Wood and Mrs. T. Wray.

The group staged a Halloween party last evening at the YWCA.

Council

Mrs. A. Z. Laughlin, 33rd District area extension chairman, will preside at the pre-organizational PTA meeting of the South High School to be held Tuesday, Oct. 29, at 7:30 p.m., in the Newton School cafeteria, 23751 Nancy Lee Lane. The purpose of the meeting is to begin the mechanics of organizing a PTA unit for the school, as has been requested by many of the parents.

A tentative chairman will be elected, and committees selected to nominate a slate of officers and write by-laws for the group. Volunteers will be chosen to head other committees.

Mrs. Evan Jansson, extension chairman of the Torrance Council PTA, will open the meeting. Mrs. D. D. Tuggle, Council president, will give a word of welcome.

AT WEDDING

Mrs. W. W. Jackson and daughters, Mrs. Dale Angel and son, Randy, and Misses Jo Beth and Janice Jackson, went to Oxnard last Tuesday evening to attend the wedding of Mrs. Jackson's niece, Mary Ellen House.

Narbonne

Narbonne High School PTA's annual membership drive came to a close last week. Mrs. D. G. Cheek, membership chairman, announced a total of 1171 memberships were collected for a 76% of parents. The goal of 100% was achieved by the faculty.

The home room of Mrs. Delores Bright's, B11 class, won the room prize for bringing in the top percentage of memberships and will be rewarded with a party at the home of Mrs. Cheek. Individual winners of the drive were Karen Livingston, who received a long-playing record and David Lawrence who received a two tickets to the Milk Bowl game.

Working with Mrs. Cheek on the drive were Mmes. John Blackmon, H. G. Cotton, Melvin Smith, William Sellers and Ray Reed.

FASHION SHOW

Tierra del Rey Parlor 300, Hermosa Beach, Native Daughters of the Golden West, held its fashion show and luncheon yesterday at the Redondo Beach Elks Club.

186th Street

On Tuesday, Oct. 15, the board members of the 186th Street PTA were surprised with a "come as you are" breakfast at the home of Mrs. Frank Garst, Jr. It was Mrs. Clifford Risher's way of reminding the executive board members that as magazine chairman she was working for the seal of 100 per cent board members subscribing. The captured board were invited to select small pieces of paper inscribed with "smile" or "try again" and other pertinent slogans. Mrs. R. Dean Bryan won the door prize, a free subscription. Assisting Mrs. Risher and Mrs. Garst were Mrs. Hugh Allen and Mrs. Tom Nakaoki who picked up the unsuspecting board members.
